

Richard T. Crow
Administrator / Accounting Compliance Group
Powered By: SOX Xpress, LLC

- Having spent twenty-four years in Mortgage Banking, Mr. Crow's expertise lies in sales, marketing and entrepreneurial development. He has extensive experience in building, staffing and managing residential mortgage retail organizations, computerized loan originations, branch offices and controlled business arrangements (CBO's).
- He has held the positions of Partner, Managing Director, Executive Vice President and Senior Vice President for two of NJ's top independent Mortgage Banking Firms and its largest independent Bank.
- Experience includes start-up operations, training, sales management, regulatory compliance (including examinations by state banking departments, and compliance audits involving RESPA, TILA, ECOA, and HMDA). He has extensive experience with FNMA's Desktop Underwriter, FHLMC's Loan Prospector, correspondent contracts, investor relations, and warehouse lines.
- Responsibilities have included building, training and managing one to four family residential mortgage origination staffs, as well as project planning, operational organization and affinity group marketing. He brings his expertise in mortgage compliance to help design all LCG SOX audits and SOX Expert software implementations for financial institutions involved in mortgage loan originations, servicing, and portfolio maintenance.
- Mr. Crow is an Administrator of LCG's Accounting Compliance Group and also a Partner in SOX Xpress, which provides a software solution for the complexity and high cost of Sarbanes Oxley compliance.
- Mr. Crow attended Lafayette College in Easton, PA and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English.
